

A DAY TRIP TO ARUNDEL

Arundel town is a bridging point over the River Arun and the castle dates back almost a thousand years. It has been the seat of Dukes of Norfolk for over 700 years and being set on a hill, the castle commands magnificent views across the South Downs. You have the day to yourselves, whether you visit the stunning tulip display of over 60,000 flowers and over 130 varieties in the wonderful castle gardens, the castle itself, or just meander around the beautiful town
