

A DAY TRIP TO ARUNDEL

Arundel town is a bridging point over the River Arun and the castle dates back almost a thousand years, it was a small market town back in the 1800s, but its population grew considerably through the 19th century and is now a popular tourist destination due to its beautiful, listed buildings and scenic surroundings. Arundel makes for a lovely day out, whether you are visiting the castle or walking around the shops or stopping by a café for lunch. The Black Rabbit pub is a lovely stop along the river on a sunny day and you can also walk around Swanbourne Lake nearby.
