

SAVILL GARDENS & RUNNYMEDE RIVER BOAT CRUISE WITH CREAM TEA

Enjoy a full day out with our first visit of the day to The Savill Garden, Windsor, which is a 35-acre haven of gardens and woodlands, commissioned by George V and created by Eric Savill in 1932. Here you will discover a world of walkways, sculptures, temples and treehouses, during your garden visit you will be able to buy your own lunch. At 2pm we leave the gardens and make our way to Runnymede to board our boat for the two hour afternoon river cruise which will include a cream tea. After the trip we will re-join the coach for our journey home after a busy and enjoyable day.
